ZENO HODE'S TRIAL IS SET FOR MONDAY OF NEXT WEEK IN HANCOCK COURT

Judge W. A. White Delivers Charge to Grand Jury—Leo Ford Made Foreman—Court to Enter Upon Active Docket Next Week.

Spring term of circuit court for Hancock county convened in Bay St. Louis last Monday and recessed Tuesday evening for a few days, however, beginning on Monday next the docket will receive full time application, following the Easter holidays.

Judge White delivered his usual vigorous charge to the grand jury, calling attention to the various forms of gambling prevailing. He made it plain that he did not refer to the "shooting of craps" by the negro element and others but to that form of gambling indulged in only too much and too often by those in position to know and to perform better.

Judge White also took occasion to compliment the clerk of the court on the artistic condition of the courthouse grounds, now a mass of flowering stalks. While Judge White gives credit to Clerk A. G. Payne, the latter modestly gives credit to W. H. McDaniel who personally attends to each and every plant with tender care.

Zeno Hode Case Monday.

No case will attract more attention possible than that of State versus Zeno Hode, charged with shooting and killing Robert M. Buck, federal prohibition officer, residing in Gulfport, on the night of Monday, February 8, when a raid was made by a group of officers who stole up on a number of men charged with making illicit liquor.

The grand jury indicted Hode last Monday when court opened. A special venire from which to draw a jury was drawn Wednesday. Since the alleged killing of Buck occurred in Hancock county and not in federal premises, the case must be tried in this county.

The state will be represented by District Attorney Wm. M. Culmer and the county by County Attorney E. J. Cox. In addition to these, the accused will be additionally prosecuted by Mize, Mize & Thompson of Gulfport. It is probable the federal government will take an active hand in the premises as this is customarily done.

Hode's Counsel Gex & Gex.

Zeno Hode, native of Hancock county, will be represented by Messrs. Gex and Gex, well-known firm composed of W. J. Gex and Walter J. Gex, Jr. of Bay St. Louis.

Otis Williams, member of the four federal officers who made the raid on the night of February 9, was also wounded in the exchange of shots and Hode received a bullet wound in the shoulder. He was sent to the King's Daughters Hospital at Gulfport, where, after a few days, he had sufficiently recovered to be sent to Hancock county, and was incarcerated in the county jail.

Hode, of French extraction and spelled Hode, with accent on the e, giving the letter e sound of a, is well known and always bore the name of a quiet and peaceful citizen. The trial will be watched with interest next week.

Following is a copy of the report of the grand jury:

To Hon. W. A. White, Circuit Judge: We, the Grand Jury duly empaneled and sworn to inquire in and for the March Term 1932 of the Circuit Court of Hancock County, Miss., do hereby respectfully submit this our final report:

"We have been in session 2 days; we have examined 34 witnesses and have returned 10 indictments.

"We have endeavored conscientiously and to the best of our ability to investigate into those matters about which your Honor has charged us to inquire.

"We have examined the county jail and find the same in fairly good condition.

"And now have finished our labors we respectfully request that we be finally discharged.

"Respectfully submitted, Leo G. Ford, Foreman; Lamar Otis, clerk."

PROHIBITION FARCE CAUSES A SPLIT IN N. O. NIGHT CLUBS

Guests Supposedly Arrested Are Free From Hearing or Punishment.

RAIDERS ARE TOLD THEIR ARRESTS FARCICAL.

United States Attorney Says He Is Only After Whole-salers.

R. E. Tuttle, prohibition administrator for the New Orleans district, hoping to obtain federal padlock proceedings against popular suburban night clubs, raided three of them early Sunday, but aroused the ire of United States Attorney Edmond E. Talbot.

During the raids, the agents placed 75 patrons under technical arrest, and Attorney Talbot said he would refuse to prosecute them. He termed the arrests of the guests as "an old-time, small town system and an injustice to the people. Such raids are not in line with the policy of the department of justice."

Tuttle replied that the raids were similar to others against smaller places and that the names of those arrested were taken along with other evidence. "The charges don't have to be accepted," he said in reference to the guests. "Our efforts were directed mainly against the premises."

Guests found drinking liquor at the clubs were listed and told by the agents to report to the United States commissioner. Their flasks were confiscated. The agents in making the raids, took positions near the entrances and arrested patrons as they drank.

Suburban gardens and Club Forest in Jefferson parish and the Playgrounds club in St. Bernard parish were those raided.

U. S. SENATE TO VOTE ON LIQUOR

To Follow Example of House—Getting Attitude Of Senators on Dry Law

An Associated Press telegram says Senate anti-prohibitionists have the assurance of their dominant dry opponents that a showdown, record vote on the issue will be taken soon.

Not to be outdone by their House colleagues, the Senate foes of prohibition Tuesday put before the Senate a motion to discharge the judiciary committee from further consideration of resolutions for repeal or modification of the eighteenth amendment.

The dry leaders promptly welcomed an immediate roll call but Senator Tydings, (D. Md.) who presented a petition signed by 24 members asking for a roll call said he would wait until March 30 to press his motion.

The new anti-prohibition move is part of the campaign of the wet advocates to get Congress on record. They have the House members marked down in black and white. They want the Senate recorded equally definitely before the next campaign begins. This seems satisfactory to everyone except some few anxious not to meet the issue.

Senator Watson, of Indiana, the Republican leader, signed the petition circulated by Senators Tydings and Bingham (R. Conn.) for a roll call vote on repeal resolutions but with the understanding that it was simply to give opportunity for a record vote, and did not commit him to a wet position.

No petition is necessary in the Senate to secure the discharge of a committee and just why it was circulated was not made known by Tydings. It was signed by 13 Republicans and 11 Democrats.

Placing Bus Carriers In Line With R. R. Lines Just Measure—Measure Expected to Bring Additional One Million Dollars To Treasury.

'CHEAP MONEY' IS SUBJECT OF TALK BEFORE BAY ROTARY

E. E. Hagberg, President of Rotary Club Guest of Honor and Speaker

Serving as president of the Piquette Rotary Club with marked ability and with such success as makes for the club its usefulness and activity all the more, in addition President E. E. Hagberg is an interesting speaker and was the programmed speaker for the Bay St. Louis Club Wednesday noon.

Mr. Hagberg's subject was "Cheap Money." Residing in Germany for a period of twelve years and actively engaged in the industrial phases of that country's business, he illustrated the fallacy of what is termed, in this instance, as "cheap money."

After the war, the speaker said, that country was flooded with printed money. Printing presses were kept busy over time and soon the country was flooded with money. A mark meant nothing. Soon that country and individuals were counting their money by millions then by billions and later quadrillions. Such a time came that money was used in so large quantities as to become a burden. "The basket that carried the money to market was larger than

The Mississippi Senate passed the Stubblefield-Richardson bill levying mileage taxes on the operation of passenger busses and freight trucks that it aimed at not only pouring more than $1,000,000 additional income into the treasury but also to place stiffer restrictions upon competitors of railroads who use the public highways in the conduct of their business.

The bill will require operators of trucks, except those by farmers in the pursuit of their own agricultural engagements, whose deliveries extend more than three miles beyond municipal boundaries to pay a graduated mileage tax, on a tonnage capacity basis in the delivery of freight and the return of empties.

Passenger busses likewise will be taxed on a graduated scale in accordance with the passenger capacity and mileage operation of their busses. The tax is applicable to intrastate, interstate and foreign commerce, and the bill has been drawn carefully to conform to decisions of the United States supreme court. Its enforcement as well as tax collections is lodged with the State Highway Commission.

Provisions Outlined.

The bill not only applies to concerns engaged in the traffic of hauling freight for hire, but also catches operators of trucks engaged in hauling their own freight such as oil companies or anyone else going more than three miles from the boundaries of any municipality.

Prediction is made that even with 50 per cent enforcement of the act, more than $1,000,000 in taxes will go into the state treasury. A similar amount would be returned to the counties on a basis of automobile registrations in the counties. The bill provides that 45 per cent shall go into the highway department funds, 45 per cent returned to the counties and that 10 per cent shall be allotted to the department for enforcement of the act.

Monthly Settlements.

The highway department would be empowered to employ patrolmen, auditors and other personnel needed to enforce the bill. Monthly permits would be granted to regular operators of trucks, for tax settlements every 30 days. Transients would be required to pay the taxes being levied on each trip the bill provides.

Regulation of freight and passenger traffic, on the railroads and on the highways under present statutes is conferred on the State Railroad Commission.

President C. M. Morgan of the railroad commission, declared after the Senate had passed the Stubblefield-Richardson bill that he believed the House should insert an amendment providing that collection of the tax should be made under the jurisdiction of the State Tax Commission (a collection body) and that the patrol for enforcement of the act should be under the Highway Commission.

"There should be some governing body that should determine who should be declared a common carrier on the highways of the state," he said.

Oh, Hearts Beroft

On Easter day, when lilies swing
Their consens in the breeze,
When frail green banners flutter forth
From host of brown-clad trees,
Grief seems a stupid thing, today,
For those who went away.

Oh hearts beroft: If these things be,
If life returns to plant and tree,
Surely the breath that wakes the flowers
From gray earth mold can waken
ours.

A Golden Wedding Anniversary at DeLisle

On Palm Sunday before mass Mr. and Mrs. Marcelin Saucier renewed their formal wedding promises before a throng of people coming from many parts of the Coast.

Father Sorin, pastor of the Catholic church of DeLisle, commented on this event as follows: Fifty years married. Is it not a blessing and a real Christian example in these days when the sanctity of the holy bounds of matrimony are trampled upon so lightly.

Divorces to the actual hour are quite a scandal in the United States. If it continues that way, they will even beat the pagan countries like Japan.

However we have one consolation that in our little town of DeLisle divorce is unknown because we follow the words of Christ: What God has joined together let no man put asunder. A beautiful example is before our eyes when Mr. and Mrs. Marcelin Saucier renewed their marriage promises of 50 years ago. God bless them for many years yet until they get their crown in Heaven. The couple was accompanied by the two youngest children, Miss Ludwina M. Saucier and Mr. Vissel Saucier.

The other children followed. There are three single daughters: Misses Ludwina M., Latitia and Caroline Saucier. One single son, Mr. Vissel J. Saucier.

Those married are: Mrs. S. L. Toquet, of Bay St. Louis; Mrs. L. P. Sellier, of DeLisle; Mrs. L. A. Lenoir, of Gulfport. A married son, Mr. S. L. Saucier, of Gulfport and eleven grand children. The old couple was accompanied to their home by all the children, where dinner was served and in the afternoon, cakes and punch was served to many friends and relatives.

Palm Sunday was well observed at DeLisle and Dubuison, where both churches were filled to capacity. The Gospel was read at DeLisle by one of the congregation and a daughter of Mr. Marcelin Saucier, and the wife of Mr. Elder Sellier.

It must be noted that on such occasion the grand Agnus Dei of Gounod Concert Mass was sung beautifully and even one must say artistically.

The ceremony that has taken place on Palm Sunday is calculated to do quite an immense lot of good.

After mass the choir sang another hymn and all went away cheering in their hearts that they had never witnessed such a ceremony before and the impression made by that golden anniversary will contribute to the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

THE FIRST EASTER.

AND the angel said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

HE is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

LONG DELINQUENT TAX LIST NOT WITHOUT SIGNIFICANCE.

MISSISSIPPI has suffered twelve weeks of an asinine legislature that has accomplished—0.

Mississippi is the laughing stock of the nation. It already has oft times. It has more sensation to the square mile than any other state.

A number of its past governors have been the laughing stock of the country. The opprobrium of a nation.

Only this week a former governor was arrested and charged at New Orleans with shady transactions. He is under indictment in Mississippi with accepting deposits when he is alleged to have known the bank he headed was insolvent.

Another governor leaves the office with a twelve million deficit. And his domestic relations are such as to bring him to court. The code of dignity and respectability seems to be trailing the dust.

IN TWELVE weeks the Mississippi legislature has accomplished nothing. It has indulged in the favorite pastime of adding taxes until today we can neither pay nor hold our property.

The newspapers of the state are carrying this year the biggest delinquent tax-list in history, advertising homes of thousands that have been held in family keeping generation after generation. These will in time be returned to the State. Consecrated sanctuaries protected and hallowed by memories.

The question? What is the State going to do with this surplus amount of property, improved and otherwise?

We are legislating people and the business man with sales tax burdens out of the State. The legislature, and preceding ones, have gone bad. Ours is a state of chaos and looks hopeless.

We still remember a little 2x4 governor, God bless the mark, who ranted and snorted, because he wanted a printing press. State-owned. On this one-track idea he recalled the legislature several times and reiterated his want, like crying for the moon, "I wanna printing press?" At your expense, dear reader and tax-payer.

Did he get it? Hardly. But the tax-payers did—in the neck. More taxes, and still the disposition is to pile it higher.

We understand the budget has to be balanced. But how about the past years balancing the expenditures. We have appropriations galore and bond issues without reckoning.

It is not current expenses, dear reader, that has bankrupted the State. It is enormous appropriations for which bonds have had to be issued.

Mississippi's plight is anything but enviable. Its people are tax-ridden. There is very little hope for them.

The present governor, like his predecessor, has gone mad; not on a state-owned printing press, but a gross sales tax. Watch him.

However, there is a remedy. For things to get worse. To keep piling the taxes higher. Make 'em sick or tax 'em until they like it. It is surprising how many proponents are there for the sales tax and other taxes.

GIVING BAY ST. LOUIS THE GRAND GO BY.

DIVERTING of traffic again from the beach highway back to the woods of Bay St. Louis and Hancock county will no doubt be the effect of an order shortly to be issued since the highway "fill" is about to be opened.

Just how much Bay St. Louis merchants will lose per week by the rerouting of the highway travel from beach to the piney woods is hard to estimate, however, someone, who ought to know estimates it during this dull period at $500 per week.

This is unfair and is a hard blow at the business section. Bay St. Louis business people on the beach possibly pay the bulk of taxes to build and maintain roads that take their living away.

This is an inconsistent combination and nowhere would it be tolerated. The beach—the scenic route—is the way for the tourist. They view the town to fullest advantage, in all its beauty, and go through both the business and choicest residential section.

The Old Spanish Trail it would seem was destined to take the visitor to some unthinkable diversified route, where nothing but a devastated forest remains, scenes blackened with forest fires, where dust is heaviest and where there is nothing to see.

It behooves our business people, if they in phlanx belonged to the Chamber of Commerce, would get together and remedy this mis-arrangement as much as possible. But the trouble is the average business (?) man does not belong to the Chamber of Commerce, or other civic clubs. He is always depending on the efforts and money thus spent by the other fellow. This is too often the case. We need not call names, dear reader. You know these tight-wads and skin-flints. The individual can do nothing. It requires organized and combined efforts.

In the meantime, the tourist trade will continue to give Bay St. Louis the "grand go by."

THE RESURRECTION.

EASTER MORN typifies the resurrection of the soul. We welcome the advent of Easter not only with great joy, but the bells of glory ringing out music in great paens and joy spread over the land.

The faith, and the scriptural fact, that we die to rise again is not only a beautiful belief and a consolation that gives depth to the thought that we live now for the future and that we must carry only here below in order we may reach the goal of eternity, gives to human breast that eternal fountain of faith. Faith springeth eternally in the breast of human. This is significant and by the sign of the cross, on which He died in order that we may live again and see the face of God, we live; we conquer. In hoc signus.

This would indeed be a poor world if it were not the faith which promises the gift of the future, the blessing of eternity. Christmas and Easter are two feasts that we observe, one for it signifies the birth of a new Christ is born, and the other for a new Christ is resurrected. He has risen from the dead. He has enlightened the way to his father in order that we may find the path, prepared by the faith which is enkindled here below by the love of Christ.

EASTER is a day of days. It is the outstanding celebration of the Christian faith. Were it not for the resurrection we would be dead. We would have nothing to live for beyond the grave. We should not see God and myriad of angels, we should not meet our loved ones and our souls enjoy that reward which comes to it from the blessing it is redeemed by expiation for mankind.

Christ died that we may be freed from sin. Christ died that we may arise and enter into His Father's House and partake of that blessing and happiness everlasting. Church of the entire Christendom, in Bay St. Louis as well as elsewhere we shall congregate; we shall sing great hosannas and, again renew our pledges of love, loyalty and obedience. Without the grace of a resurrected God we can hope for nothing. There is no incentive, no reward. The structure of the belief of the church would fall like a house built on the sand.

Sunday will be Easter. It should be set aside for joyous tidings. The Christ son has resurrected and our hearts and minds should be uplifted to heaven in divine-like appreciation of the love and blood shed by Jesus. Jesus died for us. No man hath greater love. Jesus will rise for us to keep the promise of the resurrection.

DEDICATED TO HANCOCK'S LEGISLATOR.

Where, O, Where is my wandering boy tonight?

A GREAT, GENEROUS MAN.

LEAVING a simple note for his friends, reading, "My work is done. Why wait?" seventy-seven year old George Eastman ended his life.

The bachelor philanthropist and inventor, who made millions out of photography, was a lavish contributor to cultural pursuits denied him by poverty as he grew up. His donations have been estimated to exceed $75,000,000, with his gifts scattered throughout the world.

Mr. Eastman is generally credited with converting photography from a difficult profession to a pastime and his development of flexible film made possible the modern moving picture.

It seems particularly tragic that a man who did so much for the happiness and betterment of others and whose business life was so crowned with success, should reach a point in life where nothing remained for him to consider except an orderly and speedy exit. Mr. Eastman started life as a messenger at the age of fourteen and left at his death a fortune estimated to exceed $100,000,000, despite the large gifts that he made. He regarded his wealth as a trust to be used in helpful work.

Without going into details about his philanthropies, it is worthwhile to recall the special services he rendered to chemists. Realizing that very often rare chemicals were needed to reveal some worthwhile discovery and that the average chemist or student was unable to buy them because of their cost, he established a department devoted to making rare chemicals. Some of them cost as much as $1,000 a pound to manufacture but all were sold at a flat price of $12 a pound. His department was a great help to American colleges and the infant American chemical industry.

His benefactions and around his home city of Rochester, N. Y., are well known and were on a lavish scale. His attitude in this respect is explained in a quotation from him some years ago:

"Two courses are open to the man of wealth. He can hoard his money for his heirs to administer or he can get it into action and have his fun with it while he is alive."

EASTER DAY.

WELCOME, happy morning!" age to age shall say, Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring, All fresh gifts returned with her returning King:

Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough, Speak his sorrow ended, hail his triumph now. Hell today is vanquished, heaven is won today. —From an old Latin Poem.

One cash subscription is worth a hundred "I like your paper."

When church collections break records we will assume that the depression is over.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS

By Chicagoan

A Review of the News of Last Week's Echo.

CHICAGO, ILL., March 22.—Springtime! No need to look at the thermometer.

What matters it if the birds fly north or south? The calendar says Spring is here. News in the Echo proclaims the same glad tidings. To all nature Spring means a re-awakening, a building of new life. Will it bring new hope to the human race, now so sorely puzzled over how to exercise its dominion over land and sea?

Lambs gambol on the greenward, politicians gamble on the action of the voters, both activities are signs of Spring. In Spring the poet might have said, the politicians fancy turns to politics, but it can't be said that it always turns lightly. Many Congressmen are probably glad that the prohibition test poll is over. But how they must suffer the heat of summer primaries; only a few will survive for the freezout next November.

Spring is second in the poets' choice for the subjects of their songs. And those who read last week's account of the anniversary banquet of the W. B. A. must have shared my impression that the celebration was a beautiful poem itself. About sixty guests, charmingly and ably presided over by Miss Miriam Engman, were seated amidst the colorful flowers native of the Coast country. Yes, and sweet must be the song of praise and appreciation that rises in the memories of Mrs. Little, Mrs. Croy and Mrs. Arguillas, the official national guests, when they think of the splendid success of their co-workers' efforts.

With Hancock County's supervisors ready to act on short notice and now with reports of the Louisiana survey being under way, proponents of the building of the "short cut" highway, take on new hope. The work of the Louisiana surveying party may be slow, but it will be thorough, the Echo indicates, since one of its objects is to reduce the cost of the project; a phase of the matter which highway commissions as well as others must not overlook these days.

Babe Ruth signs a contract to play baseball this summer. His salary to be $75,000. When you read that news you know that baseball time has just about arrived. Mr. Ruth never signs his contracts too early. To do so would deprive him of a lot of publicity and publicity is what makes him worth $75,000. But you have your embryo Ruth's in Bay St. Louis. The Stanislaus College, Echoes tells of the reverberations from Biloxi and Gulfport being heard on the campus where the game will soon get under way. And still younger fellows are rooting around the attics of their homes looking for last year's suits and wondering if the moths have done them "dirty." They have read of Babe Ruth too, but if the King of Swat never lived those healthy lads would be just as busy this time of the year. It's in the blood.

How glad all of H. de S. Gilum's friends will be when they learn that he has been able to return to his home after a siege of salvation. Winter brings its share of sickness and inactivity, they're bad enough even in that monotonous season everybody knows. But who wants to remain in bed during the Spring? That's when we take on new life, when new hopes dawn, when we burn with a desire to be "up and at 'em." And that's when we're particularly glad to hear that one of our sick friends is able to be about his regular work again.

In the season of resurrections comes Easter, the fact of the most glorious Resurrection. After the dark days of winter, the plants again lift their heads to the bright sun. After a week of deep meditation and prayer, such as is being observed in the churches of Bay St. Louis men and women will lift their eyes to the Resurrection of their Savior. His Promise is the hope that sustains them through life.

There'll be less buying in all lines this Spring, that's in the nature of things. But there'll be some trading done, and Bay St. Louis Merchants must make more of an effort than ever before if they want it done at home. People have so many appeals to their sentiments these days that so long as the home town merchant is out of the bread line, he may not come in for much sympathy. That may not be cheering, but it's the way things are. Real merchandisers, however, are not depending on sympathy. Look through your Echo to prove that their stores can give you values as good, and better than those you find when you spend time and money searching for them in other towns.

LOVE LINES

If I had words of silver,
If I had words of gold,
With phrases set with diamonds,
And jewels manifold,

I could not breathe the essence
Of half the love I know,
So subtle its quintessence,
So fairy-like its glow.

If I had lutes of magic,
With strings of dulcet dreams,
Each effort would be tragic
To touch such tender themes.

Your eyes are wells of wonder,
Your hair is angel-spun,
Your rose-sweet lips asunder,
Glow warm as tropic sun.

If I had Titian brushes,
And hands of Angelo,
Del Sarto's finest flushes,
Fra Lippo Lippi's glow,

I could frame your features
With all that wealth of art.
Alone of all God's creatures,
You hold my captive heart.

Your wisdom, wit and beauty,
Your courage, candor, calm,
Devotion unto duty,
Your grace of pine and palm.

Your everything about you,
In body, heart and brain
Would make my life without you
A prison house of pain.

So if my words were silver,
Or brightest beaten gold,
With phrases set with diamonds
And jewels manifold.

I could not pour my passion
In tribute to your throne,
This phrase, I therefore, fashion,
"My love is yours alone."

DAVID E. GUYTON.
Blue Mountain, Miss.

LOCAL SIDELIGHTS.

WITH an abundance of hard-surfaced roads it is possible to have an early dinner in New Orleans and motor out to any point along the Coast; visit friends or places and be home in ample time for the hour of retiring. There are many motor trip possibilities now with the network of roadways that radiate out from New Orleans over into St. Tammany parish and the Gulf Coast. Thousands of cars do this every Sunday. And it is noted the number is increasing.

Everything should be done and every comfort evolved to attract strangers and other visitors to our midst and keep them here. Courteous attention, public and private, attractive places for parking and well-kept premises to attract the eye for the beautiful all conspire to this end.

Attention was recently called to the practice of clogging the sidewalks with barrels, boxes chicken coops and the like. And, further, the correspondent writes, "I found not only sidewalks in places of business littered with remnants of containers and covers but with the inexcusable accumulation of things that should never be allowed in public places. There is no doubt a neglected outside will well belie a well-kept interior."

Perhaps if it were lacking we might notice it more, but the fact remains Bay St. Louis has one of the finest little municipal parks to be found anywhere. The Park surrounding city hall premises is not only well laid out with landscape effect but is well kept. There are paths that make it inviting, benches, swings and plenty of fresh drinking water there all the time. And by night the park is well illuminated. It is a fine playground and no where within so small confines is there so much. By night the park more than ordinarily is well illuminated, and pedestrians to and fro find it a short cut from the railroad depot to either Second street or to the beach front. We must not lack that sense of realization that gives proper credit to the Bay St. Louis city park. It is a credit, indeed.

Beautiful poems by David E. Guyton, which have appeared in the columns of The Echo from time to time are not only worthy of perusal but for a place in one's scrap book. Prof. Guyton, of Blue Mountain College, Mississippi, is a poet by gift and culture. He sings his song with such facility and tells his story with such facility and understanding that at no time is he forced to take poetic license. Give us poems like Guyton; more songs like his, more music and rhythm; let us be inspired by tunes and words so true. Readers of The Echo we know you have been enjoying these gems.

John T. Meyers, of San Antonio, is a lay minstrel. He does not sing with lute like Apollo, but in prose he weaves like in spells of mystery great stories of the Romantic Southwest, evolving into words for the reader sketches of color and fine spun that live and last. Mr. Meyers writes with most facile pen. His keen sense of observation for the beautiful, the history that is rich in romance and from nature's great store house he tells a great story in so few words. He is a word painter, yet not verbose; he can tell of sunsets, waterfalls and unforgettable landscapes in word pictures that leave nothing more to be wished for. A delineator whose sketches appearing in these columns nearly every week, whose products of a golden pen and

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

JUNIORS CHAMPIONS OF INTER-CLASS TOURNAMENT.

The events of last Thursday will make it stand prominently among the "Red Letter" days of 1932 in the memories of the girls of S. J. A., for on that day was scheduled the first of the Academy's inter-class contests. The High school had been preparing for it since the close of the Gulf Coast Tournament and it claimed as much if not more interest from the students than had been given the last mentioned event.

A fairly large crowd was assembled in the gym by 7:30, the Seniors and Freshies played first and though their big sisters were victorious still those little "greenies" put up a great fight and took their defeat 12-11 like real sports. Miss Melodia Nix, a Senior, sprained her knee during the first two minutes of play, much to the regret of her classmates, who missed her sadly during the remainder of the games. The Juniors and Sophomores met next and in spite of the valiant fight which the Sophs put up they were unable to get a lead on the Juniors who won by nine points the score being 29-20.

A rest of fifteen minutes was given before the finals which were to be played by the Seniors and Juniors. Both teams were determined to win the "trophy" so you can picture for yourself just what sort of a game this was. Unconscious of wild cheering and excited spectators the game went on tense, close and hard-fought. At the end the Juniors were victorious by a score of 18-13.

Rev. Father Fahey presented the trophy, which is indeed a beautiful one. In a few well chosen words Father Fahey complimented the girls on the spirit of sportsmanship which they had displayed during the tournament and he expressed the hope that it would not be the last of such contests at S. J. A.

The Juniors had planned a little surprise for their sister Seniors and after the presentation of the real trophy they prevailed on Father Fahey to make a second presentation, their own special recognition to Class '32—in the shape of a tiny cup overflowing with a substance stringy in appearance and closely resembling straw. Father Fahey accompanied the presentation with a clever poem somewhat to the effect that the "Juniors had caused the down fall of the Seniors, and in their renewed sisters' broken heads had found ex-cel-sior. The trophy bore the inscription:

"S. J. A. Sports 1932." All in all the Inter-Class Tournament of 1932 was a great success and the students of S. J. A. re-echoed Father Fahey's hope that it will not be the last.

GRAMMER GRADE UNLIMITED TEAM DOWNS SACRED HEART SCHOOL OF N. O.

The Blue Jays, S. J. A.'s grammar grade team proved themselves last Saturday when they met the unlimited team from the Sacred Heart school of New Orleans, who are downtown champions of the New Orleans Catholic School Athletic League. The Blue Jays held their opponents to a blank score practically to the close of the first half and allowed them to make a sum total of only 6 points throughout the whole game. The final score was 28-6 in the Blue Jays' favor.

That's the way to do it Blue Jays keep up your fighting spirit and we'll be proud of you as star Gold Jays some day.

60 INCH TEAM DEFEATED AFTER HARD FIGHT.

It was a somewhat frightened group of little girls all less than 60 inches tall, S. J. A.'s "Junior Jays" who met the Sacred Heart school 60 inch team in the preliminaries to the Unlimited Team's game last Saturday.

It was the majority of these little "Junior Jays" first public game and their opponents looked as though they would run away with them in the beginning of play. However our little "Jays" recovered themselves during the half and how they did fight during those last two quarters. They did nobly and we're proud of them in spite of their defeat for they had the spirit of which all true S. J. A. "Jays" are made. The game resulted in a victory of 28-13 for the Sacred Heart school.

SODALITY NEWS.

The regular weekly meeting was held last Thursday. The chief business of the session being the checking of the attendance at the monthly Communion and the weekly meetings. An appeal was made to the Sodality to redouble their prayers and mortification during the current week, which is Holy Week. The Mission Committees were asked to report on the standing of their respective treasuries for the Lenten season and they were exhorted to make their groups reach the required quotas by Easter.

SOPHS SPONSOR TREASURE HUNT.

In an effort to increase their Mission Fund the sophomores decided to give a Treasure Hunt. It took place last Tuesday immediately after school and while being the source of lots of fun to all who participated in it at the same time netted $2.00 to the Sophomore Mission treasury.

TELLING THE WORLD.

To little us our inter-class tournament was "Great Stuff" one to go down in the History—of S. J. A. Did you see it? Just such an event should have been described over the radio. Can you imagine how it would have sounded? Well, here's a few snapshots:

Wp—rr—Zrr—rrr—Brr (Static)—Hello, Folks! This is station S. J. A. broadcasting beyond control from Bay St. Louis—that little city nestled on the Gulf that Riviera of the South. Anyway I'm going to tell you about the inter-class tournament between the Freshies, Sophs Juniors and Seniors of St. Joseph's Academy—the teams are in fine shape—each is out to win. The Fresh are already on the court. Hear them—well, I wish you could see them too, with their bright green colors flying. And now for the Sophs bright red for them—you should see those teams warming up. They have had battles ahead—and now our big sister Seniors enter the gym—hear the applause—Yep! Seniors, clad in white with determination on their brow—they even smell dangerous—a group of them just passed by. And now folks, I guess you're wondering what the big buzz is about—bright red and yellow sweaters have entered and in them—Juniors!—The first game twixt the Seniors and Freshies, draws near—

—ay clamor for positions—the whistle blows—the ball is in mid-air—they're off. (Minutes later)—Folks! That was some game—except for the unfortunate accident of Mel Nix, our renowned Senior who sprained her knee badly all can say—"we sure enjoyed the first game of the tournament." The result is 12-11 in favor of the Seniors.

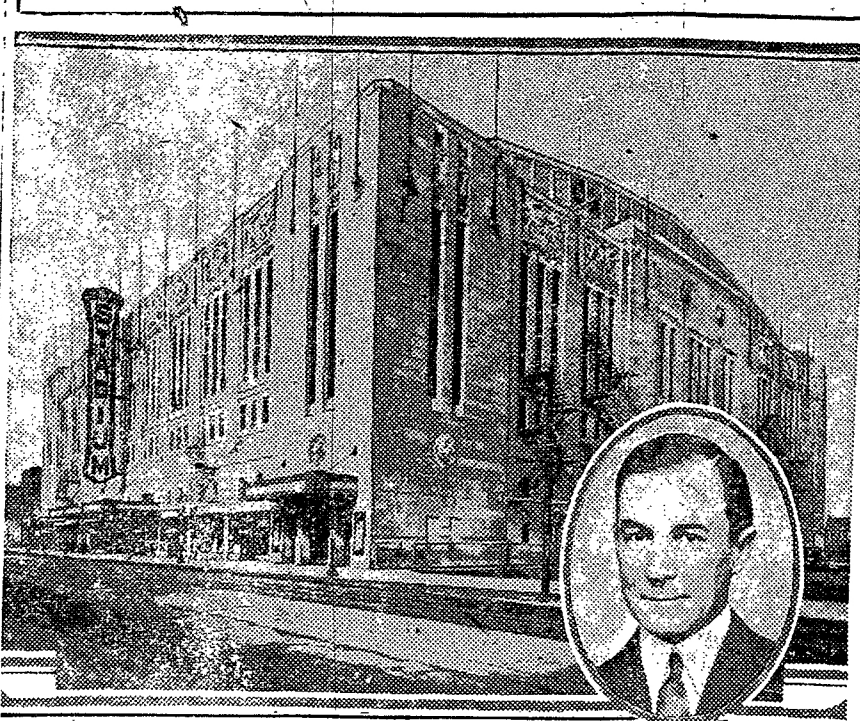

Zowie! Here goes the battle of the Juniors and Sophs—each player eager and ready to defend her class—hear the whistle? Just look at 'em go. (Later)—And so the clash ended in a 29-20 victory for the Juniors! And now folks a 15 minute intermission before the finals—both teams have a swell chance—fbla-bla—I think these finals are going to be one real struggle, because Folks! What a trophy! I wish you were here to see it—words cannot describe—Never have I seen such spirit. They're ready to start—There's the signal—they're off—Nope, pardon me, they haven't begun yet—Signal, over—there it goes—they jump—Oh! a foul—it's good! Toss again, long pass to the captain—a goal—time out, etc. And after the game is over—

Folks, it's all over—the tournament's over—they've won—they've won—what a game? The score—13-18—The Juniors won.

Now the trophy is being presented. There she goes—what a smile—what a player—what a captain and what a tournament.

At least that's how I think it would have sounded and you

Chicago, Convention Champion of 1932

Chicago Stadium in which the Democratic National Convention will be held. Inset—Melvin A. Traylor, member of the Civic Committee which obtained the Convention for Chicago.

CHICAGO has jumped into a long lead over other cities in the race for winning convention assignments, and particularly the two great assemblages of Democrats and Republicans in June puts Chicago well in the lead and gives the "Windy City" an opportunity to stage those colorful affairs as a curtain raiser to the "Century of Progress" which will be a head-line attraction in 1933. Already the convention pot is boiling merrily as committees of prominent business men are organizing to receive thousands of visitors in Chicago during June.

One of the leaders who has helped to bring the blue ribbon convention assignments to Chicago is Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank and a business man with a flair for tackling big jobs. Mr. Traylor, a native of Kentucky, has achieved national and international fame in finance and business by his distinguished service in Chicago, Texas and throughout the Middle West. He was one of the delegation headed by E. N. Hurley and Mayor Cermak of Chicago who went to Washington and clinched their bid for the National Democratic Convention with a fund of $200,000.

Chicago has exceptional facilities for entertaining both Republican and Democratic conventions within a single month. Already the engineers are at work with blue prints to arrange the interior of the huge Chicago Stadium where both conventions will be held.

The assembling of both conventions promises to be a great spectacle, for the arena where delegates will be seated will accommodate between 8,000 and 10,000. Circling the arena are 16,000 seats where guests and visitors may be accommodated.

Her First Thought. The teacher was trying to make Elsie understand subtraction and she said, "You have ten fingers; now suppose there were three missing, what would you have then?" "No music lessons," said Elsie promptly.

Instructor—Suppose you were at 10,000 feet and your plane broke suddenly into flames what would you do? Pu; il—Pray for a cloud burst, sir.

COMMENT ON SPORTS BY SHERIDAN

Ruth Gets $75,000

Bell Serves Notice

Phar Lap Opens Season

Baseball Prospects

Cubs, Yanks and Tigers.

The high spots in sports last week was the signing of George Herman (Babe) Ruth of the New York Yankees at a salary exactly the same as that paid the President of the United States. The Babe who drew $80,000 for the past two years, accepted a one-year contract at $75,000 and both principals declared themselves thoroughly satisfied with the deal.

The stupendous salary which Ruth collects is the largest ever paid a player and according to most observers, is earned. Since 1920, the big slugger has collected almost $700,000 from the Yankee club. His pay check in 1920 was $20,000, went to $30,000 the next year and to $52,000 for the next four years. In 1927, he signed a three-year agreement for $70,000 and in 1930 a two-year contract calling for $80,000 per year.

Berkeley Bell, of Texas, served notice on the tennis world that he has rounded into championship form and will have to be given consideration, by defeating Jean Borotra, of France, defending champion in the indoor Tennis Singles championship match at New York.

The Frenchman is considered by many to be the finest indoor court player that ever lived but was only able to win six games from Bell, who took revenge for the drubbing given him by Borotra last year. Bell's entire campaign was based on a plan of hitting the ball so hard as to keep the Frenchman rushed in, the Texan would shoot fast shots down the sidelines and, mixing them cleverly with base line lobs, he kept Borotra on the defense.

Phar Lap, giant Australian thoroughbred, made his American debut in the $50,000 Agua Caliente Handicap Sunday and will wage an intensive campaign on the tracks in this country during the summer. In Australia he won $282,000, a record share winning 36 races in 50 starts. He is five years old, and has a stature and a set of powerful legs unprecedented on our race tracks. His campaign in this country will be watched with interest by racing fans and it is safe to say that the Australian horse will win additional laurels in America.

Phar Lap captured Sunday's race in Agua Caliente in easy fashion, breaking the track record.

Continuing our pre-season review of the baseball teams, we give below early impressions of the Cubs, Yankees and Tigers. Other teams will be treated later.

The Cubs believe that they have a sensation in Stanley Hack, the Sacramento banker who left his books to bat .352 and field .942 in the Class AA circuit. He will probably take the place of Bell at third and Hornsby is benching himself to let Bell Herman, 22, of Louisville handle the second base.

At first, Crumm and at short, English prevent worry on the part of the Cub manager. The pitching staff has been strengthened by the acquisition of Burleigh Grimes, who will give Malone, Root, Bush and Smith plenty of help. Several promising recruits are expected to make good hurriers.

Hartnett will lead the catching corps and the outfield includes Stephenson, Cuyler and probably Richburg.

With the Babe safely in the fold and satisfied with his $75,000 contract for one year, the New York Yankees figure that with Chapman, Combs and Ruth, the outfield can be counted on to do its share of slugging and take care of the fielding.

In the infield, Joe McCarthy is hoping that Crossett, purchased from San Francisco two years ago for 1932 delivery, and Saltzgaver, from St. Paul, will make good at short and second, respectively. Both hit at a .340 clip in the Class AA Leagues and are expected to get regular berths if they can come anywhere near that mark against big league pitching.

At first Lou Gehrig and Larry at third, play the infield with Lazzeri, Sewell and Eddie Farrell held in reserve.

Upon this heavy-hitting outfit is based hopes of the Yankees to end the three-year reign of the Athletics. In the box, McCarthy has Phipps, Ruffing and Gomez ready for work. With Henry Johnson out with appendicitis, available in June. Pennock and Wells add to its strength and John Allen, a new right-hander, is expected to be good. Behind the bat, Bill Dickey has the first call and will do his share of the hitting, with the infield and outfield sluggers.

Stanley Harris, pilot of the Detroit Tigers, says that his team may be "the surprise of the year" if Gehrig returns to form and plays his best game around the second sack. Last year, he was out of form through an injured arm but so far seems to be ready for the battle. If

COUNTY P. T. A. HOLDS MEETING AT LOGTOWN— ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. Horald B. Weston Re-Elected President—Seven Vice Presidents—Lakeshore Wiss Attendance Banner For Three Consecutive Times.

The Hancock County Parent-Teachers Association held its annual convention at Logtown Saturday with the Logtown P. T. A. as host. There were 8, registered delegates in attendance. Lakeshore P. T. A. won the attendance banner for the third consecutive year. The banner is awarded on a percentage basis. Officers elected for the ensuing year follow: Mrs. Harold B. Weston, Bay St. Louis, reelected president; Mrs. R. B. Logan, Bay St. Louis, first vice president; Mrs. John Wheat Flat Top, second vice president; Prof. A. S. McQueen, Bay St. Louis, third vice president; Mrs. L. W. Schilling, Waveland, fourth vice president; Mrs. C. W. Fountain, Logtown, fifth vice president; Mrs. James A. Evans, Bay St. Louis, sixth vice president; Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Bay St. Louis, seventh vice president; Mrs. L. W. Jacobs, Bay St. Louis, secretary; Mrs. W. W. Stockstill, Bay St. Louis, treasurer; and Mrs. Luther Russ, Waveland, historian.

Three state officers and one district officer were in attendance, namely, Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Bay St. Louis, state treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Weaver, Gulfport, state membership chairman and Mrs. R. P. White, Long Beach, state citizenship chairman, and also president of District 11, of which Hancock county is a part. Mrs. Weaver addressed the meeting at the morning session on the subject, Worthy Aims of Local Associations; and Mrs. White spoke at the afternoon session on Team Work. Other speakers included Mrs. L. W. Jacobs, Bay St. Louis, on Program Building at the morning meeting; and Mrs. B. Logan, Bay St. Louis, on the Summer Round-Up at the afternoon session.

The program opened with community singing led by Mrs. Clem Westos, Logtown. Rev. J. K. Lawton, Logtown, gave the invocation. Mrs. George Bennett, Logtown gave greetings and Mrs. R. B. Logan, Bay St. Louis, responded. Entertainment included readings by Elmer Bourgeois and Yvonne Henley of Logtown; playing during luncheon by the "Kiddie Band" of Logtown; songs by the Logtown Glee Club directed by Mrs. Clem Weston. At noon luncheon was served by the Logtown P. T. A. All decorations were in green and white. Corsages were presented to the three state officers.

Prof. C. P. Barker of Sellers, president of the Hancock County Teachers' Association, addressed the convention pledging cooperation with the P. T. A. next session in organizing associations throughout the county. Reports of the various county officers showed seven associations in the county now, namely, Waveland, Lakeshore, Flat Top, Logtown, Bay St. Louis Central, Taylor School at Bay St. Louis and St. Joseph Academy at Bay St. Louis. Also a colored P. T. A. has been organized this year. The outstanding work of the P. T. A. this year has had to do with health work, Dr. C. M. Shipp, county health officer, who has held an office in the P. T. A. the past year, having worked in cooperation with the P. T. A. in all phases of health activity.

he is not Harris admits, "we are sunk."

A good jitching staff, including Sorrell, Uhl, Whitehill, Hogsett and Herring is the high spot of the club, with Mark Koenig, former in fielder being groomed as a possible new moundman.

"Muddy" Ruel will do the catching. At first base Dale Alexander will give batting strength and Rogell from Toronto, and Richardson, also from Toronto, seems to have the first call on short and third base, respectively. In the outfield it is a wild scramble, with several candidates in the royal battle. Roy Johnson and Johnnie Stone seem to be regulars at this time.

It might be said here Waveland is ever prepared and more so now than ever.

SILVER TEA AND MUSICAL.

On Wednesday, April 13th from 3 to 6 P. M. a Silver Tea and Musical will be given at St. Joseph's Memorial Hall sponsored by the N. C. C. W. Coast Division. This promise to be one of the outstanding affairs of the spring season. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

"Polly Of The Circus"

Good Entertainment for The Whole Family

There is enough entertainment for the entire family in "Polly of the Circus" Marion Davies's new starring vehicle at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday. It is the ideal screen presentation, containing just what young and old look for on the screen.

Everybody loves the circus and there is the most thrilling view of flying trapeze acts you ever witnessed right at the very start. In the spectacular climax, other exciting circus scenes are to be seen and throughout the picture there is a glamour and color aimed to delight all ages. The romance is charming, in simplicity and to those filmgoers, jaded from reels of ultra-sophisticated dialogue, the story will be refreshing to see and hear.

Alfred Santelli directed the feature with the thorough understanding that marked his recent "Daddy Long Legs." He has given the picture a beautiful setting and in the handling of the love theme his camera technique never allows the action to lag for an instant.

Clark Gable plays opposite the star in the picturization as the small-town minister who falls in love with the jazz-hearted circus girl.

Others in the impressive supporting cast are C. Aubrey Smith, Raymond Hatton, David Landau, Ruth Selwyn, Maude Eburne Little Billy, Guinn Williams, Clark Marshall, Ray Milland and Lillian Elliott.

Footpad's Footprints.

If footpads don't leave footprints, are they eligible to membership in the footpads union?

Such was the question before Lieut. John O'Brien on the morning of Chicago's only snow for the year. Chalmers Brewer of Evanston had telephoned the police station in a hysterical voice.

"Two men have just thrown a bundle in the Sanitary District Canal. I think it was a body."

"Come on boys," commanded Lieut. O'Brien, collecting a squad of the station's bravest. Brewer was on hand when the officers arrived on the banks of the canal. He pointed and said, "It was right here."

"You're seeing ghosts," retorted O'Brien. "There aren't any footprints in the snow around here. Come on boys, back to the station we go."

"What amazing observation!" congratulated a patrolman.

"Just the elementary principles of crime detection," said O'Brien lightly passing off his accomplishment.

PASCAGOULA TRUSTEES MEET.

At a meeting of trustees of all the schools in Jackson county, a resolution was adopted requiring all beginner teachers in the county schools to have at least one year of college training. This regulation will go into effect with the session of 1933-1934. Teachers now employed in the county schools and having no college training will be required to take summer courses either at some college or normal school.

They are delighted with "the Bay," and their arrival for the young gentlemen cannot be scheduled any too early.

—J. J. Fordinal opened his branch bakery and confectionery Saturday night on the beach front, near Main street, with Mrs. Fordinal in charge, and opening a representative place, well-stocked, it is no wonder they are doing well. An enterprise of this kind it seems was a business well felt in this section of this city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fortune Jaubert and family, of New Orleans, who have been spending the past two summers enjoying Bay-Waveland bathing and gulf breezes during the summer, occupying the Cartwright Eustis Newport Cottage on the Waveland beach front, have again leased the premises for a two-year period and plan to be here for the season at an early date.

—Strangers coming into our town are surprised at the large amount of ICE CREAM given at the ATLAS DRUG STORE for 5c and 10c. They have a variety of flavors and you can get it in the sanitary cups or homemade cones.

—Re-election of Mrs. Harold B. Weston as president of county Parent-Teachers' Association, at Logtown last Saturday, was not only a compliment deserved, but served to point out the wisdom of those who made this re-election so. Mrs. Weston has worked earnestly in the cause over the county to the extent that the P.-T. A. is organized over Hancock and serves as an abiding force for better co-operation in school work. It has been pointed out that the school and teacher cannot do it all. Co-operation, the constructive kind, is necessary. That has been proven. Mrs. Weston will continue her splendid work and we wish her that splendid co-operation which has aided her in the work.

Mayor Charles Traub, Sr., was an official visitor to Gulfport Wednesday forenoon, conferring with the committee that will receive the Legislature at Gulfport and along the Coast for this Sunday. There will be a formal banquet given at the Great Southern to the Governor and members of the Legislature Saturday night.

—For your Easter Sunday dinner, serve ICE CREAM for dessert. You can get a gallon (any flavor) for $1.50; half gallon, 75c; quart, 40c and a pint for 25c. at the ATLAS DRUG STORE.

—Mrs. Minna Briggs, who has been visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Weston, at their attractive Spanish home in Sycamore street, left a few days ago for her home at Pharr, Texas, where her son resides, after spending the winter here not only delightful with her relatives but with friends.

—Miss Marie Bertrand, who resides on the Pass Christian beach with Miss L. C. Del Bondio, on Wednesday celebrated her birthday, which was indeed an event not to be forgotten by her many Mississippi Coast friends although, during the Holy Week, it will not be observed until the Saturday evening of next week. Miss Bertrand by her winsome personality has won and retains innumerable friends.

—Mother Regina, St. Joseph's Convent, Baton Rouge, La., accompanied by Sister Thorsia, arrived Wednesday forenoon from New Orleans and will spend a few days in Bay St. Louis at the local convent.

—Mother Regina will be remembered as a member of the faculty as teacher of music several years ago and loved by all. She is a sister of Mrs. Geo. E. Pitcher and also of Sister Lucilla of St. Joseph's Convent, at Baton Rouge.

—Bay St. Louis and Waveland beaches prove as popular this Easter week-end as ever for the college set, which have pleasantly invaded the shores of this section and Pass Christian in numbers that seem to exceed all previous seasons. The Bay-Waveland spot with the sorority and Fraternity set and since they have been officially invited by the Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce they are more than doubly welcome here.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Welch, owner of the Welch villa on South Bay St. Louis Boulevard, motored down from their home in Indianapolis. Sunday night and are spending the week in Bay St. Louis with friends. During the early part of the week Mr. Welch attended the convention of Southern Pine Growers and Exporters, which was held at New Orleans. They will leave with much reluctance during the latter part of the week in order to be home with their two fine children for Easter.

—D. R. Blackman, youth at King's Daughters Hospital, from near Gainesville, this county, who was recently seriously hurt in a stump-pulling accident was taken to New Orleans Monday by his uncle, Former Sheriff Jos. C. Jones, under whose protection the young man has been since the unfortunate occurrence. The broken leg had to be re-X-rayed and set into a special cast which could be better done in New Orleans because of special facilities over there.

—We will thank you to leave your order for ICE CREAM for Sunday as early as possible. It will help us to make more prompt delivery during the rush hour, ATLAS DRUG STORE.

—Recent cold snap, which went down to freezing nipped the early strawberry, upon which the grower depended in more than ordinary quantities and in ordinary cents and dollars is now proving permanent. On the contrary, new shoots have resulted, since the plants were never killed, and "early berries" will only again be a matter of time. This is the first time Hancock county is experimenting in the matter of berry growing and it is interesting to learn the effort is going to prove both successful and profitable.

—"Club Soiree" under the personal direction of popular Charles A. Breath, Senior, opened its doors to the public Saturday night, St. Joseph's, but since there were other attractions in the city for the night of St. Joseph's, the crowd was not sufficiently large to give all places an overflowing patronage. However, Club Soiree, which promises to fill a long-felt want in which it is entitled, "Club Soiree" is located at the former Bay-Waveland Yacht Club building, Front Street and Washington streets.

—Since the accident of a two weeks ago, when an automobile and its occupant went over the O. S. T. bridge at Henderson Point, the place has been inspected by engineers from the State Highway department and a report forwarded to headquarters. As a part of the trail and for a traffic bridge, this is considered one of the frailest and danger-lurking places possible. Autos traveling from opposite direction, about to climb the high and short bridge, hardly see the approaching car from the other side due to the high and steep approaches. The wonder is that more accidents have not occurred at this death trap.

J. Juden, secretary Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, on payment of customary fee per plate.

—It is interesting to note the dance given last Saturday—St. Joseph's night—by local Macabees was both a social and financial success. There was an excellent attendance both locally and from out of town.

—Mayor Traub went down to Gulfport early this Friday morning to represent the city of Bay St. Louis in welcoming the U. S. Frigate Constitution to the Mississippi Gulf Coast, along with the distinguished delegation that went to sea to meet the historical vessel.

—Mrs. E. J. Leonard has returned from a visit to Mobile, accompanied by Mrs. Fannie Goldstein, grand treasurer State O. E. S., Greenville, Miss.; Mrs. Ora Facette, Newton, Miss.; Mrs. Josie Rabkin, grand conductress O. E. S., of Gulfport, at whose home Mrs. Goldstein has been visiting. The trip was purely social and the ladies report an unusually interesting time.

—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lorch whose fondness for Bay St. Louis shores seems to know no bounds, came out from New Orleans Saturday for the week-end and enjoyed their stay in their usual manner, friends calling on them at their beautiful and hospitable beach villa. They plan to arrive here at as early date as possible for the spring and summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Price and family, who have been living at Algiers, La., the past several years have returned to Bay St. Louis and are occupying the Price two-story home in Booker street opposite the college campus. The building which has been vacant five years, has been renovated and put into most habitable shape.

—Highway Commissioner J. F. Thames was a welcome caller on the Echo Monday while here on official business in the interest of the Old Spanish Trail. Mr. Thames is more than ordinary popular and it is always a pleasure of more than ordinary sense to welcome him here. He announced that light traffic may travel through over the O. S. T. but that it would be well for bus and truck travel to continue the Lakeshore detour until later notice. It is a debatable question whether many will wish to use the O. S. T. since they have enjoyed the scenic beauty of the Bay Waveland beach since making the Lakeshore detour.

—Mrs. R. S. Birdsall, editress and publisher of the Yazoo City Tri-Weekly Sentinel, an accomplished woman and of the type who cared not for the foibles of the world but sustained her eminent position in life in her endeavor for constructive work in the community, who died last week succeeding her publisher husband by two years to the grave was no stranger in these parts. She was well known to Rev. C. C. Clark and family and a friend of many years standing to Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau. She was a woman of rare quality and the State press has lost a valued member. The nephew who inherits the splendid newspaper property, announces he will "carry on."

Pre-Easter Thoughts.

By JOHN T. MEYERS
(For The Sea Coast Echo)

The past week has shown a most remarkable change for the best in the conduct of many juvenile members of typical American homes over the country. Strange to say, little Juniors seem even unimpaired of that natural enemy of childhood—soap and water applied to tiny necks, ears, and hands. Bright-eyed and dimpled Mary Jones, too, have suddenly decided to tidy up toy-strewn playrooms. And mother dear doesn't have to ask twice when little tasks are to be done about the house.

The lovable little rascals are putting forth a show of best behavior. The usual family row over persuading young Americans to eat spinach, and drink the daily quart of milk has reached an armistice.

Wise parents however, are not alarmed. Diminutive finger marks on calendars prove tell-tale evidence. For all points toward, and end on Sunday, March 27th.

Of course, this is the date when Easter Bunny Rabbit is due to make his scheduled appearance, leaving gay-colored baskets filled with candy eggs and other goodies to delight the hearts of good children. And Juniors and Mary Jones aren't going to let a little thing like soap and water, or milk and spinach stand in the way of the pleasant expectations that are foremost in their imaginative little minds at this time.

But the kiddies are not the only ones who are eagerly awaiting the arrival of Easter Sunday. The sis and brother Tom may not be thinking of tempting candy-filled Easter baskets at their bedside when they awake on joyous Easter morn, but their big sis and brother Tom have reached the flapper and jelly bean age, perhaps. Big sis can hardly wait to wear her beautiful, new dress, shoes and oh, just gorgeous, Easter hat.

Brother Tom has visions of himself nattily outfitted in his new Easter suit, and nifty straw hat.

Dads and Mothers are anticipating the pleasure they will derive from seeing the youngsters enjoy themselves. And if Dad is wise and has available cash to spend he will make Easter joy and happiness extend over a longer period by buying that new car, home, or furniture while the prices are at the present low mark.

While the more fortunate are making merry on this sacred day, thought of those in more needy circumstances should not be forgotten. Perhaps there are some poor little children in your community, whose sad little hearts are vainly erecting a visit from the Bunny Rabbit. Dear, kind Bunny Rabbit would not intentionally overlook any good child no matter how poor or shabbily they may be dressed. But the old fellow is near-sighted, and may mistake their little huts for a barn or garage.

He will be so happy if any kind persons will take care of any deserving children he may be unintentionally overlook on his tour of cheer, good will, and blessing over the countryside. Perhaps Juniors and Mary Jones will be glad to share their Easter baskets with some needy child.

At a meeting of ladies interested, called Monday evening, the prospective style show and musical program, announced in these columns recently, benefit convent gym building, decided Friday, April 29 as the date upon which the entertainment will be presented. ## Hancock County Fire Preventive Service Makes Good Report

Less than one per cent of the Wolfe River Forest Protective Area in Hancock County has been burned over since July 1st, according to District Forester K. E. Kimball of the Mississippi Forest Service, who has made an inspection of the area with Ranger H. C. Givens.

Mr. Kimball reports wonderful improvement in the eighty thousand acre area during the four years that it has been under protection. He states that millions of young pine seedlings have come in and that forest protection sentiment has grown much stronger among farmers and stockmen of the region.

Mr. Kimball announced that a medal and other prizes have been offered to the boys and girls of Flat Top Consolidated School who do the best work in preventing and reporting forest fires.
